NORSK ARBEIDSMANDSFORBUND

The Norwegian Union of General Workers is an organization that fights for workers' wages, rights and dignity. We organize wage earners, negotiate and enter into collective agreements for our members. The collective agreement ensures reliable working conditions, which is the main reason why most people join a union.

The collective agreement provides a sense of security at work. You as a worker are guaranteed a fair wage. We fight so that everyone earns the wage he or she deserves, and so that no one will be able to exploit another for their own gain. Together we ensure workers a secure day at work everyday.

- Free help and support from experienced negotiators and union staff.
- Secure wages and working conditions.
- Support and assistance during restructuring, layoffs and dismissals.
- Union officials with expertise in labour law and contract systems, ensuring that there is always someone standing by ready to help you.
- Security in your private life. Insurance from LOfavør is included in your membership. It covers life and leisure injury insurance as well as household goods and personal property insurance.

We stand stronger together

We are a union that unites people at work. We stand stronger together. Unions are necessary to ensure fair wages. Union officials negotiate wages and working conditions on behalf of you and your colleagues. You avoid being left on your own, and you always have someone who can plead your case. You can join the union even though there is no collective agreement at your place of business. As a member, you have both rights and benefits.
